

Persons living in the village and counties adjacent to Bolivar would do a favor by giving us particulars of any person who may be missing within their knowledge.

NOTICE.

Messrs. CLEMENTS & BRENT are hereby appointed as our agents in Memphis to solicit advertisements for the BULLETIN, and are also authorized to collect and give receipts therefor in our name.

MILLER & PARRISH.

M. C. R. R.—Trains on this road leave Bolivar for Grand Junction every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 12 m. Returning same days, leave Grand Junction at 2 p. m. At the latter place close connection is made with passenger and freight trains on the southern division of the road that go through to Canton, and there connect with trains to and from New Orleans direct. Time from Bolivar to New Orleans, 33 hours. Connection is also made with trains on the Memphis and Charleston road running east and west of the Junction.

BRISK.—The merchants of Bolivar continue to transact a most lively and encouraging business. Our little city is giving out unmistakable signs of prosperity, and the owners of town lots would do well to note the fact that additions might almost daily be made to the number of inhabitants already here if dwelling and business houses could be procured. At this time there is not a vacant house in the place. We need more accommodations for those who are anxious to settle here. Every new-comer is either directly or indirectly a benefit to Bolivar. There is no reason why our city should not expand. Here we have the best farming lands in the South, a healthy climate, fine water, and excellent timber. Let houses be built, and they will not lack for occupants. Mechanics are needed, and inducements should be held out to them. The work is here for them to do. Will the property holders see to this?

THE CONDITION.—The condition of the negroes of this county is better, perhaps, than in any other portion of the State. All of them are located, and we have not heard of a single instance wherein a contract has been violated. The decisions of the agent, Mr. J. D. Ussery, are uniformly acquiesced in without a murmur, and he has so far discharged the duties of his office in a masterly manner; and judging from his past and present fitness for the position he occupies, will conduct the duties of his office so as to win the approbation of all persons who are of necessity compelled to submit to the laws governing the freedmen. However much we may deplore the new order of things as regards the negro, we cannot but admire the disposition shown by the freedmen in this county. They have made their contracts, and are diligently complying with the obligations entered into. We hear of no insubordination or refusal to work, and have never had occasion to notice a single case of lawlessness on their part.

We thank Bent. Crisp, Esq., for latest Memphis papers.

PINE TOBACCO.—Go to Black & Moore's if you want a plug of genuine Virginia tobacco.

R. C. Gist, postmaster at Memphis, can supply you with Revenue Stamps of all denominations and in any quantity.

Boots.—If you want a pair of boots, call on Fleming, Ussery & Co.—They can beat the world on boots to our certain knowledge.

"Ye local" went to a lecture a short time since and heard the lecturer say many good things—he told some folks to double themselves, and some folks doubled! That's all.

WINTER STOCK.—L. C. Elson & Co., south side of the Public Square, are able to furnish you with reasonable goods of every description. Our friends, Capt. Harris and Bent. Crisp are there.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see our young friend, Henry Rodgers, of the firm of Warr & Rodgers, at his post again. He looks as though his recent pleasure trip agreed with him.

At 38 Jefferson street, Memphis, you will find those accommodating merchants, Messrs. Fowlkes & Steffy, who are about the best cotton dealers in the South. They do a general commission business.

HO, FOR LORY!—Yes, when you are in Memphis go to the Commercial Hotel and get Lory to "fix you up nice." He has the finest tonsorial establishment in the South, and will wait on you at a moment's notice.

ONE OF THE BEST.—John Bullock, whose professional card will be seen in another column, is one of the best criminal lawyers in this State, and an honor to the bar of Memphis. Those desiring to secure his services can consult with him by letter.

WARR & RODGERS.—Parties who desire to secure a good bargain should not fail to call on the gentlemen now occupying Major Bill's old stand. They are legitimate merchants, and full of the "milk of human kindness." They have dry goods, groceries, hardware, hollowware, etc.

LIGHT AND HEAVY.—The heaviest dealers in all the various artificial lights, are Blood & Co., of Memphis. They have two mammoth houses full of useful articles—one at 40 and 40 1/2 Monroe street, the other at 361 Main street. They are direct importers and offer great inducements in coal oil, paints, lamps, tinware, stores, sheet tin, zinc, lead, etc.

BRENNELL.—Over at the north-west corner of the Square there is a two-story framed house, jam full of good and useful things, all of which were bought for cash and will be sold at a slight advance on cost. If you are in need of drygoods, groceries or confectionaries, go to the above place. Sherwood is there. See his advertisement in to-day's paper.

We have got a cow and calf I want a little more. For, pigging from their backs. They can take a little store.

Yes, show us the man that feeds the hungry, and we'll furnish the clothing in this particular case. We want some cow feed. Who will let us have it? Don't all speak.

BOLIVAR MALE ACADEMY.—The Spring session of this excellent school will commence on the 5th of February next. Parties who contemplate patronizing this school, would do well to read the advertisement of the Principal, which we print in another column. The Board of Directors are R. H. Wood, President; J. C. Fleming, Secretary; Hugh Harkins, Treasurer; J. H. Neilson and Dr. A. A. Coleman; and the exercises of the school will be presided over by J. Milton Hubbard, Principal, and Austin M. Stadler, assistant. It will be seen from this arrangement that the Bolivar Male Academy is in a flourishing condition, and there is no doubt but what it will be well attended by the youths of Hardeman and adjoining counties.

CHANGE OF FIRM.—Our fellow-townsmen, A. Moore, Esq., has purchased an interest in the store of Warr & Rodgers. Hereafter the business of that house will be transacted under the firm name of A. Moore & Co. We are requested to state that ample arrangements have been made to keep on hand a full line of staple and fancy dry goods, groceries, plantation supplies, hardware, etc., together with a select assortment of notions. Mr. Moore is well known to the people of Hardeman, and the mere mention of the fact that he has associated himself with the mercantile community of this place, is sufficient to cause a rush of business to the house with which he is connected. Read their advertisement.

BE SURE.—We have often referred our readers to the matchless business qualities of the house of Orgill Bros. & Co., corner of Monroe and Front streets, Memphis. This firm is now prepared to furnish the planter with every useful farming implement, the mechanic can get any tool or machinery desired, while the miller, at the same time, can fill his bill to perfection. There is no use in patronizing Cincinnati or St. Louis houses when any desired article can be had in Memphis. Our people should trade among themselves as much as possible, and thus help one another to retrieve their fallen fortunes. Buy from Orgill Bros. & Co., for they will give you the worth of your money on every occasion.

CLAIMS.—If any of our citizens desire to have their claims collected against the United States Government for losses sustained during the late war, they had better consult Messrs. Bras & Hudson, attorneys and claim agents, at No. 26 Madison street, Memphis. We are cognizant of the fact that these gentlemen are energetic and trust-worthy, and we do not hesitate to recommend them as learned barristers, ever working for their client's good. Call on them, and judge for yourself.

A GOOD OFFICER.—While in Memphis a short time ago, we chanced to meet our old friend, P. M. Winters, sheriff of Shelby county. If the March elections take place, we'll bet two to one that he'll get it alone on a "Pat" hand—no, we mean ticket—and beat the "blue blazes" out of anything in that county for the position which he now so satisfactorily fills.

PHOTOGRAPH.—By reference to an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Mr. W. T. Brooks, of Mississippi, a young artist of rare merit, proposes to establish in our midst a first class picture gallery. We have seen some specimens of Mr. Brooks' work, which will compare favorably with that of any artist in this country. His room will be immediately over the store of A. Moore & Co.—Bill's old stand—and open to the public on the first of February. Those desiring to "secure the shadow ere the substance fades," would do well to test the skill of Mr. Brooks, as he is well versed in his profession, and can furnish any kind of picture that may be desired.
